Dowsing : FIND > FLOW

What is “dowsing” and WHY would I benefit from it?

Dowsing is an energetic method to find “flow”. If a body, mind, situation is “stuck”, blocked or confused, dowsing can not only find or validate the “block”; it can also facilitate, encourage, and find solutions to generate flow again.

You, your energy, space, pet, environment can get “unstuck” with the use of dowsing. In brief, dowsing is a method of finding clarity for many things, physical, mental, and emotional relief, testing for ingredient alignments and “amounts”, specific items as well as physical “placements”, giving answers, information, and energetic solutions when more traditional methods or rational are not uncovering answers.

My “dowsing” is used to “scan” for blockages or obstructions as well as validating options and choices one can have to make things best in one’s mental, physical, or emotional world.

For both people and pets dowsing can help navigate the energetic world: the invisible world of “cause”, enabling one to heal, gain understanding, and foster fun and joy as results.

As a method, dowsing:

1. Uses right and left brain functions to find answers to issues that don’t appear to having solution from previous “rational” attempts for solutions.
2. Is a natural “talent” that everyone possess’, anyone can use it after being trained.
3. Can be used as a transformational tool to make your life and environment better!
4. Can be done either in the “physical” presence or remotely from a color photo.

Dowsers have been employed to find valuable natural resources such as water and oil. These “finds” can be also measured for mass, depth, purity, etc...all by dowsing for location and measuring via Q&A.

Health, wealth, power, relationship, and getting clarity on almost any issue are all served by dowsers and dowsing. Many healers use dowsing to test for food and environment allergies and alignments. Dowsing is a great tool to use along with Kinesiology or muscle testing...and is considered to be a like or in-kind method.

An example of dowsing in feng shui:

My method of dowsing comes into my feng shui practice as I move rich energy about a home or a space. Everything is alive, aware, and responsive...so, a table, chair, crystal, color may WANT to be in a certain spot or place to help the flow of what you intend. Especially when placing crystals or various minerals to anchor or bring in energy, dowsing gives me the exact location where its placement is at its most auspicious and powerful. Even down to “which side is up” for an item.

An example for your own home / garden:

A practical side of dowsing can be demonstrated with your garden and or houseplants. One can “dowse” for physical location, soil composition, amount and type of nutrients and moisture, energetic environment (more than just compass direction!), other plants nearby, and how you and others interact with it in its environment. Happy home, happy plants all from dowsing!

The value and use that dowsing can have for an animal or pet is profound.

A dowsing example for pets:

Your pet's emotional and physical health can benefit from dowsing. "Blockages" can be found in your pet's body and emotional fields. Dowsing does NOT diagnose, but it "finds" where flow is not happening. This can be a bone, muscle, circulation, acupuncture meridian, surgery or shot scar, allergic hive, many things are considered "blockages". Dowsing finds them, then you can help by dowsing for modalities that an animal can have that will help them smooth out, heal. A good example is a bee sting! The sting area reads as a "huge block"...dowsing in that area (either remote from photo or right in the physical) takes away the toxins causing the inflammation... lets these flow out of the system and creates quicker healing and comfort. Dowsing will also be effective in your decision to go to a vet if your animal is allergic...you can ask simple "Yes / No" questions that calmly and quickly reveals the needs of the animal.

A dowsing example for YOU!:

Your home, pet, environment, are all TOP priorities for you to balance and harmonize. At the end of the day, if YOU are blocked, frustrated, stalled out then everything around you shares that energy. Shift happens, and when the "flow" is not smooth or positive, you can employ dowsing to get "shift" into positive action once again! Are you simply sorting through "decisions"; looking for funding, have questions about a career move, questioning or wanting partnerships? These are just a few things in which dowsing can help you find some solutions.

Here's an example: You have 3 offers of employment: 3 choices for a boss, 3 different company cultures to choose from. You can get answers based on what your intent IS for your higher good, for your best profit, for your most loyal long term relationship, for your advancement. If you can be specific as to the "why" and the "good", then dowsing can and does give you answers to "Yes / No" formatted questions.

A second example: You are experiencing runny eyes, sneezing, coughing, when you enter your side yard. Dowsing for your "compatibility" for each plant you go near or identify can single out a possible allergic reaction. The "cures" you are taking or considering...what is their effectiveness to what your body needs or wants? Dowsing can narrow things down quite precisely what can or will not be effective.

The above are very simple examples of how Dowsing can be of help...there are an infinite number of possibilities to reap benefits from dowsing.

For me, dowsing is like a giant magnifying glass to see things that seem invisible, and also acts like an energetic "lie-detector"...one cannot cover up or hide an energetic pattern.

Remember, everything is alive, aware and responsive. So, "talk" to all the energy around you, ask questions, use the "Yes / No" of dowsing to make your world and all that is in it filled with health and a flow of joy!
